This is AWESOME!!!!

You have scared the crap out of him and now he is nervous.

Take your time, send it to me for a critique if you want.

Give him all the rope he needs to hang himself.

GREAT JOB. You should feel good.

Rick

If you can give me a written list of specific facts that I can verify.

As I said last night, if I am convinced there are inconsistencies with the rationale for the change order, I will look into it further. Based on what you said to me last night after the meeting, I definitely would be interested in reviewing anything that you can bring to light that is inappropriate with the rationale stated in the letter justifying/requesting payment. If I have specifics in hand and my staff and I can verify that the rationale is not fair and reasonable, I will simply hold payment.

Attached is the letter and change order - please read through it and feel free to send me your comments. I will be especially interested in knowing anything that is not factual or otherwise misleading along with any suggestion you have for verifying same.

As of now, I have pulled and will simply hold the payment until Monday so I can review the specifics you send.

Mike,

When I spoke to you last night after the council meeting and gave you facts about the change order you expressed concern. Is there a method that this resolution can be reconsidered?
