8. CITIZEN'S FORUM

Citizens are invited to speak on any issue pertaining to the business of the City of Dover. Statements shall be limited to five minutes.

Margaret Fogarty, 16 Florence Street: She asked the Council to use their authority to override the tax cap and explained her reasoning. She thanked the Council for recognizing Mr. Michaud.

Timothy Provencal, 16 Florence Street: He asked the Council to consider overriding the tax cap for education.

Edward Bleiler, 28 Isaac Lucas Circle: He disagreed with the first two speakers, saying that money does not educate children. He discussed the city retirement liability. He discussed the two newspaper articles he gave to the Council. He believes Dover is in the highest percentile for taxes, and felt Dover should spend less than last year in order to start banking funds. He believes any more spending will just bankrupt Dover sooner.

Aviva Grasso, 1 Pebblewood Drive: She spoke on behalf of the Community Trail Advisory Subcommittee of the Planning Board. She discussed the Community Trail, which was not paid for by property taxes. She indicated that the subcommittee wished for tunnel lights to remain lit

Donald Medbery, 3 Covered Bridge Lane: He said he would like to see a lot done in Dover, but staying within the tax cap. He wants to be on record for being against overriding the tax cap. He spoke regarding the Tolend Road meeting that he attended. He felt the engineering firm gave an excellent presentation.

Richard Hebbard, 97 Spruce Lane: He spoke about the Mayor's actions toward Mr. Lynch, and felt it was discrimination. He spoke about the Stormwater Feasibility program on the Agenda. He presented a bench that he made and offered to donate it to the City to replace the bench that was removed from the downtown area. He asked the City Manager if it could be placed in front of Café on the Corner.

City Manager Joyal said he would follow up on this with Mr. Hebbard.

Mary Hebbard, 97 Spruce Lane: She talked about a new movement throughout the country called progressivism, which was about control, spending, and violating people's rights. She spoke about the actions of the Council at the last regular session and the Foster's Daily Democrat article. She discussed the Census. She said "fair share" is a Marxist statement, and asked for people to stand up for their rights.

Meeting Time: 7:00pm

Bob Kane, 6 Western Avenue: He discussed the need for the benches on Central Avenue.

Glenn Grasso, 1 Pebblewood Drive: He discussed that getting your fair share is not a Marxist comment, but actually a capitalist comment, because the City should get what they pay for. He recommended that the Council have a Sergeant-at-arms present for Council meetings. He discussed the discrimination comments mentioned earlier by Mr. Hebbard about the Mayor not saying thank you, and asked the Mayor not to thank him for his comments. He discussed his opinions on other people's hypocritical comments. He discussed the independent audit and the comments that the City was doing well. He said the people of Dover voted in this new Council.

9. CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

City Manager Joyal spoke about the wind storm clean-up, and said information will be published in the local newspaper and Channel 22 regarding curbside pick-up, which is being funded for by federal disaster funds. The City received additional funding from a grant for additional energy efficient improvements, which will help offset the cost of the energy project. He said he will be reappointing Marjorie Briand to the Dover Housing Authority. He spoke about the Census, which will determine distribution of elected officials and federal funding. He asked everyone to complete and return the Census by mail. He said if it isn't returned by mail, then someone has to physically visit the home, and there is an expense attached to that process.

Councilor Cheney asked about the process for the monthly report from the energy efficiency project.

City Manager Joyal said the contractor has a full year to complete the energy efficiencies, and discussed the process for the monthly reports after that time. He said he is getting preliminary reports to see if the projects are performing as expected and corrections will be made if needed. He said the grants have lowered the amount to be debt financed from $1.6 million to under $1 million, which allows for a quicker payback.

Councilor Cheney asked for figures on prior years' storm management.

City Manager Joyal said he would provide them as part of the upcoming budget proposal.

Councilor Cheney discussed the $300,000 in subsidies for the McConnell Center showing up under the City Council's budget.
