Overhead projection and dynamic updates are in place and the Committee is finding this is helping move the current effort more quickly. Committee found inconsistencies in recording Ordinances from when Ordinance is passed to when Ordinance is recorded.

Chapter 152 had changes missing from meeting July 2010 –

Ordinance number 2010.07.14-11

152-28 paragraph C.

“C. The Licensing Board may waive licensing requirements for applicants who plan to temporarily maintain a public way obstruction for the purpose of public expression of views and/or non-commercial objects such as cigarette disposal containers or complimentary non-business related seating or similar activities.”

152-29 Paragraph A

“A. No public way obstruction shall be placed, installed, used or maintained in any location whereby the clear space for the passageway of pedestrians is reduced to less than forty (40) inches; or would otherwise interfere with the free passage of a wheelchair.”

Ordinance changed 60 to 40 – not brought forward

Other note about Ordinance date of first reading 06-23-2010, public hearing 07-14-2010, approved 07-14-2010.
