All Council Members

All members of the City Council, including those serving as Mayor and Deputy Mayor, have equal votes. No Council Member has more power than any other Council Member, and all should be treated with equal respect.

All Council Members should:

- Demonstrate honesty and integrity in every action and statement
- Comply with both the letter and spirit of the laws and policies affecting the operation of government
- Serve as a model of leadership and civility to the community
- Inspire public confidence in Dover government
- Work for the common good, not personal interest
- Prepare in advance of Council meetings and be familiar with issues on the agenda
- Fully participate in City Council meetings and other public forums while demonstrating respect, kindness, consideration, and courtesy to others
- Participate in scheduled activities to increase Council effectiveness
- Review Council procedures, such as these Council Decorum Guidelines, at least annually
- Represent the City at ceremonial functions at the request of the Mayor
- Be responsible for the highest standards of respect, civility and honesty in ensuring the effective maintenance of intergovernmental relations
- Respect the proper roles of elected officials and City staff in ensuring open, transparent and effective government
- Provide contact information to the City Clerk in case an emergency or urgent situation arises while the Council Member is out of town

Council Conduct with One Another

Councils are composed of individuals with a wide variety of backgrounds, personalities, values, opinions, and goals. Despite this diversity, all have chosen to serve in public office in order to improve the quality of life in the community. In all cases, this common goal should be acknowledged even as Council Members may "agree to disagree" on contentious issues.

2014-2015 City Council Procedural Rules and Decorum Guidelines

In Public Meetings

- Use formal titles.

The Council should refer to one another formally during Council meetings as Mayor, Deputy Mayor or Council Member followed by the individual's last name.

- Practice civility and respect in discussions and debate.

Difficult questions, tough challenges to a particular point of view, and criticism of ideas and information are legitimate elements of a free democracy in action. Be respectful of diverse opinions.

- Honor the role of the presiding officer in maintaining order and equity.

Respect the Chair's efforts to focus discussion on current agenda items. Objections to the Chair's actions should be voiced politely and with reason, following the parliamentary procedures outlined in the City Council Procedural Rules.

- Demonstrate effective problem-solving approaches.

Council Members have a public stage to show how individuals with disparate points of view can find common ground and seek a compromise that benefits the community as a whole. Council Members are role models for residents, business people and other stakeholders involved in public debate.

- Be respectful of other people's time.

Stay focused on the matter being discussed and act efficiently during public meetings.

In Private Encounters

- Treat others as you would like to be treated.

Ask yourself how you would like to be treated in similar circumstances, and then treat the other person that way.

Council Conduct with City Staff

The key provision on Council-staff relations can be found in section C-5-8 of the Dover City Charter:

“Neither the council nor any of its members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to office or employment or his removal, suspension or discipline by the Manager or any of the administrative officers. Neither the Council nor any member thereof shall give orders to nor interfere with the performance of the duties of any of the administrative officers or employees either publicly or privately. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the Council from meeting with the City Manager to discuss the operation or conduct of any administrative department or officer and to recommend any investigation of any complaint by the City Manager. Any violation of the provisions of this section by a Councilor shall be a violation, conviction of which shall constitute immediate forfeiture of his/her office”

Governance of a City relies on the cooperative efforts of elected officials, who set policy, and City staff, which analyze issues, make recommendations, and implement and administer the Council’s policies. Therefore, every effort should be made to be cooperative and show mutual respect for the contributions made by each individual for the good of the community.

- Treat all staff as professionals.

Clear, honest communication that respects the abilities, experience, and dignity of each individual is expected. As with your Council colleagues, practice civility and respect in all interactions with City staff.

- Channel communications through the appropriate senior City staff.

Questions of City staff should be directed only to the City Manager, City Attorney, City Clerk, or Department Heads. The City Manager should be copied on any request to senior staff. When in doubt about what staff contact is appropriate, Council Members should ask the Mayor and/or City Manager for guidance.

- All Council Members should have the same information with which to make decisions.

The City Manager, City Attorney, City Clerk and Department Heads will all endeavor to ensure Council Members are provided with clear and consistent information upon which to base decisions.

- Never publicly criticize an individual employee. Criticism is differentiated from questioning facts or the opinion of staff.

All critical comments about staff performance should only be made to the City Manager through private correspondence or conversation.

- Do not get involved in administrative functions.

Avoid any interactions with staff that may be construed as trying to shape staff recommendations. Council Members shall refrain from coercing staff in making recommendations to the Council as a whole.

- Be cautious in representing City positions on issues.

Before sending correspondence related to a legislative position, check with the City Manager to see if a position has already been communicated. When corresponding with representatives of other governments or constituents, remember to indicate if appropriate that the views you state are your own and may not represent those of the full Council.

- Respect the competing demands for staff work.

Requests for information should be made through the City Manager, according to the protocol for channeling communications. Any request, which would require an inordinate amount of staff time to research a problem or prepare a response, may be referred to the full council for direction to ensure that staff resources are allocated in accordance with overall council priorities.

- Support a positive and constructive work place.

Council Members should support the maintenance of a positive and constructive work place environment for City staff and for citizens and businesses dealing with the City.

- Depend upon the staff to respond to citizen concerns and complaints.

It is the role of Council Members to pass on concerns and complaints on behalf of their constituents. It is not, however, appropriate to pressure staff to solve a problem in a particular way. Refer citizen complaints to the City Manager who will coordinate follow-up by the appropriate staff member(s). The assigned staff member(s) should respond according to the procedure outlined in the Citizen's Guide for Complaints, Compliments and Suggestions. The City Manager is responsible for making sure the Council Member knows how the matter was resolved.

Council Conduct with Boards and Commissions

The City has established several Boards and Commissions as a means of gathering more community input. Citizens who serve on Boards and Commissions become more involved in government and serve as advisors to the City Council. They are a valuable resource to the City's leadership and should be treated with appreciation and respect. Council Members serve as liaisons to many Boards and Commissions, according to appointments made by the Mayor and City Council, and in this role are expected to represent the full Council in providing guidance to the Board or Commission. In other instances, Council Members may attend Board or Commission meetings as individuals, and should follow these protocols:

- If attending a Board or Commission meeting, identify your comments as personal views or opinions.

Council Members may attend any Board or Commission meeting, which are always open to any member of the public. Any public comments by a Council Member at a Board or Commission meeting, when that Council Member is not the liaison to the Board or Commission, should be clearly made as individual opinion and not a representation of the feelings of the entire City Council.

- Remember that Boards and Commissions are advisory to the Council as a whole, not individual Council Members.

The City Council appoints individuals to serve on Boards and Commissions, and it is the responsibility of Boards and Commissions to follow policy established by the Council. Individual Council Members should not feel they have the power or right to unduly influence Board and Commission members in any way if they disagree about an issue. A Board or Commission appointment should not be used as a political "reward."

- Concerns about an individual Board or Commission member should be pursued with tact.

If a Council Member has a concern with the effectiveness of a particular Board or Commission member, the Council Member should consult with the Mayor and/or Appointments Committee Chair, who can bring the issue to the Council as appropriate.

- Be respectful of diverse opinions.

A primary role of Boards and Commissions is to represent many points of view in the community and to provide the Council with advice based on a full spectrum of concerns and perspectives. Council Members may have a closer working relationship with some individuals serving on Boards and Commissions, but must be fair to and respectful of all citizens serving on Boards and Commissions.

- Keep political support away from public forums.

Board and Commission members may offer political support to a Council Member, but not in a public forum while conducting official duties. Conversely, Council Members may support Board and Commission members who are running for office, but not in an official forum in their capacity as a Council Member.

- Maintain an active liaison relationship.

Appointed Council liaisons are encouraged to attend all regularly scheduled meetings of their assigned Board or Commission, or to arrange for an alternate.

Staff Conduct with City Council

- Respond to Council questions as fully and as expeditiously as is practical.

Senior staff will strive to respond to all Council Member inquiries completely and quickly as practical. The guideline for allocating an inordinate amount of staff time to research and response to Council Member inquiries will apply. If a Council Member forwards a complaint or service request to the City Manager, there will be follow-through with the Council Member as to the outcome.

- Respect the role of Council Members as policy makers for the City

Staff is expected to provide its best professional recommendations on issues. Staff should not try to determine Council support for particular positions or recommendations in order to craft recommendations. The Council must be able to depend upon the staff to make independent recommendations. Staff should provide information about alternatives to staff recommendations as appropriate, as well as pros and cons for staff recommendations and alternatives

- Demonstrate professionalism and non-partisanship in all interactions with the community and in public meetings
- It is important for the staff to demonstrate respect for the Council at all times. All Council Members should be treated equally.

Other Procedural Issues

- Don't politicize procedural issues (e.g. minutes approval or agenda order) for strategic purposes.
- Submit questions on Council agenda items ahead of the meeting.

In order to focus the Council meetings on consideration of policy issues and to maintain an open forum for public discussion, questions which focus on the policy aspects of agenda items should be discussed at the Council meeting rather than administrative minutia. Any clarifications or technical questions that can be readily answered can be handled before the meeting. Council Members are encouraged to submit their questions on agenda items to the City Manager as far in advance of the meeting as possible so that staff can be prepared to respond at the Council meeting.

- Respect the work of the Council standing committees.
- Commit to periodically review procedural rules and guidelines and advise presiding officer of any issues or concerns.

Throughout the year, Council Members should routinely review the Council Procedural Rules and these Decorum Guidelines. Questions or unresolved issues should be brought to the attention of the presiding officer for clarification or to schedule follow-up with the full Council during a future public meeting.

Enforcement

Council Members have the primary responsibility to assure that these guidelines are understood and followed, so that the public can have full confidence in the integrity of their local government. These guidelines are intended to be self-enforcing thereby requiring an ongoing commitment by Council Members to faithfully honor the trust and dignity bestowed upon them as elected leaders and community role models.
