- ANY GENERAL ORDINANCE DISCUSSION

There was no discussion.

5. CITIZENS FORUM

The Committee Chair acknowledged human from Rochester and invited him to speak.

human, 402 Portland Street, Rochester: He spoke about the ordinance about prohibiting hunting on City property, paragraph B and it being too restrictive and redundant.

The Committee discussed the language in the ordinance.

General Legal Counsel Blenkinsop said he could clean up the language a bit. He said the purpose of this ordinance change was to allow someone to get rid of a wild or rabid animal without running up against this chapter in the code.

Councilor Cheney said they should add "or authorized designee" after City Manager to be more consistent.

General Legal Counsel Blenkinsop agreed they could add another person to loosen that up a bit.

Councilor Cheney started a discussion about creating a list of restricted properties.

6. ADJOURNMENT

Councilor Cheney moved to adjourn; seconded by Councilor O'Connor.

Vote: 2/0.
