1. The Dover High School Career and Technical Center NJROTC program was evaluated and inspected at Dover High School on January 13. They received overwhelmingly positive comments and very high marks. There were marching demonstrations and awards presented at this impressive event. Congratulations to the students and their advisor Commander Gamble.
2. Poetry Out Loud will take place at Dover High School tomorrow (2/12) from 12:30-2:30. This is a great event and I am happy to be a judge for all of work of the talented participants.
3. Dover High School will be hosting a Percussion and Winterguard Show on March 6. This is a daylong event and there will be more than 30 colorguard and percussions groups from New England showcasing their talents.
4. Dover School District elementary schools will hold Kindergarten registration on March 8, March 9 and March 10. Please contact your neighborhood school to make an appointment.
5. The Young Inventors Program Celebration will once again happen at Horne Street School on Thursday, February 18. Winners will participate in the state celebration in Manchester at the end of March. This is a great event to stimulate inventive thinking and encourage practical ingenuity through hands-on discovery in a creative and collaborative environment.
6. Woodman Park School is holding their Young Inventors Ceremony as we speak. Congratulations to all of our future inventors for their hard work!
7. Woodman Park School is also holding a Family Literacy Night on February 15. There will be a free pasta dinner, milk and cookies, special guest readers, book swap, crafts and literacy activities. PJs are encouraged, but not required. Please contact Woodman Park if you would like to attend.
8. Dover High School Drama Club will be performing Legally Blonde from March 17-March 19. I'm sure it will be as fabulous as all of their other productions!
9. Scholastic Art awards will take place tomorrow (2/12) at the DHS Gourmet's Table.
