DRAFT

Meeting began at 7:00

Present: Pat Campbell, Sue Medberry, John O'Connor, Gary Bannon, Christophe Cloitre, Jess Bonello
Absent: Tim Paiva, Suzanne Petersen, Michael Arsenault

Gary:

- We have had exemplary staff at both pools this summer
- Scheduling new staff has not been a problem
- New custodian is working out well
- We cut back on the weekend custodian for the summer
- Maintenance closure is coming up at the indoor pool
- Painting, deep cleaning, deck and filter work will be done
- CIP will be going to the council soon (heating system replacement will be included)
- The outdoor pool has been busier than usual

Mick's report:

- New sessions of swim lessons will begin after Labor Day
- Dates are posted online
- Team usage was steady this summer; will start again after Labor Day
- Keeping pool in low 80's has been difficult with the high temps this summer
- We've had to add water to cool it during backwash cycles and as needed to keep the water level at the correct amount.

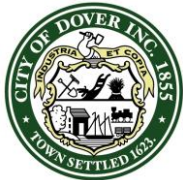

Finance and budget

- Gary will bring end-of-year statement next month
- We were in good shape at the end of May

Old Business:

Henry law park project:

- The sidewalks bordering the park are done with cement instead of asphalt
- Brick paths will be placed through park
- Tomorrow a tank will be put in and tied to drain system
- Splash pad will be on a timer; water will be held in tank and repurposed for irrigation
- Slides, swings and other equipment are here and will be installed soon
- Middleton Lumber will be helping design and build a mini- Garrison Tower
