Just read the disappointing decision. I think this is a mistake to pull back from such a popular community engagement, especially in the current environment.

I know the police are asked to deal with terrible and seemingly intractable problems in the community, and I recognize how hard and important that job is. I just think any amount of good will from the community would be invaluable. The mounted patrol has also been a source of pride for us in the town, and I have never spoken to any of my neighbors and gotten anything but full support.

Thank you to all of you who responded to my email, I just wish the decision had been different.

Regards,
David Darrah

To whom it may concern -

Just a quick note to express my support for the Mounted Patrol in Dover. As a tax payer, I believe this is a powerful symbol and wonderful institution for our city.

Since it seems like little else changes, our household will be voting on this issue for city council next election.

Sincerely,
